SOTHAM AND CATCHFLY TAKE THE PURSES.

Extremely Disagreeable Weather Causes a Slim Attendance- ! he Promises for To-day are Better.

The second annual spring meeting of all favorable, being cloudy and extremely be for rent. cool for this season of the year. Overcoats and blankets were in demand, and, no doubt, the few who were in attendance often wished during the afternoon that they were at home beside a cozy fire. The attendance, as intimated above, was slim, but fair weather is predicted DRESSED beef is sold at eight cents a for the rest of the week, and we hope pound in Florida. Why may it not be to see large crowds in attendance. In the first race Sotham, Maud R., William T. and Emma Strathmore answered to the call. Sotham was the favorite all along and won easily in three straight heats, Maud R. taking second money, William T. third and Emma Strathmore fourth. THE judgment of the Mason Circuit In the second race, the 2:25 class, Alta, Court in the case of Mannen against Catchfly and Lady Thorn were the only Bradberry has been reversed by the ones to start, with Alta and Catchfly having an equal number of admirers at the beginning. The first heat showed, however, that Catchfly had things all her own way, and she won the purse in
